A good night out. Popular theatre: audience, class and form

Author(s) : McGrath, J.

Miscellaneous : A good night out. Popular theatre: audience, class and form. 198

Abstract : The book contains six talks given by the author to a seminar in Cambridge in 1979. They look at the different ways different classes take their entertainment. The consideration of political theatre in the twenties and thirties, contemporary working class theatre is examined in order to reach a definition of truly working class theatre. The challenge of the cinema and television is discussed.
