Abstract or Description

Over the past 15 years, Mass Media and Society has established itself as a leading international textbook on mass media. Written by distinguished academics from around the world, the book provides an invaluable guide through three key areas of debate:

theories of media and society

the study of media organisations debates about culture, ideology and democracy.

The fourth edition has been fully updated and contains 13 new chapters on key topics, ranging from post-war journalism as entertainment. Above all, it offers a number of alternative views on the changing role of media in the era of globalisation, new communication technology, the 'war on terror', the advance of welfare and increasing economic inequality
