Law and gospel as hermeneutic: and the Lutheran tradition

Richard P. Hordern

Abstract

It is difficult or impossible to use the Lutheran idea of 'Law and Gospel' as a guide to measure the impact of a text on a theological audience, as is demonstrated with Luther's interpretation of the Sermon on the Mount. But even so, 'Law and Gospel' must be supplemented by the idea of 'discipleship' and other categories in order to encompass the full message.
