Abstract Eve's statement that she had █████ a man in Genesis 4:1 has been the subject of considerable academic debate of the Semitic root qnh/qny, as well as a contextual analysis of Eve's expression ██ Genesis 4:1b as "I have procreated a man with Yahweh." This observation illustrates that some biblical authors perceived Yahweh as a creative agent in the mysterious process of human conception, a view that accords with Yahweh's participatory role
