[First paragraphs]After dishing out consecutive meals of pepper-pot, callaloo, rundown, migan, sancocho, and coo weary and beg a respite. All else is here as usual; the only thing that's missing is the culinary metaphor. Once again year's Caribbeanist Hall of Shame. As always, we list those books that (as of press time, January 1997) have not been who agreed to the task have - despite reminder letters - neither provided a text nor relinquished the books so that someone else. (Rather than listing delinquent reviewers by initials alone as in the past, we indicate both initial and to forestall false accusations and protect the reputations of the innocent.) As in past years, these paragraphs may received."
