Of Histories, Erasures and the Beloved: Glimpses into Philippine Contemporary Poetry

Dinah Roma, De La Salle University, Manila

ABSTRACT

To attempt a definition of Philippine contemporary poetry is to confront its historical and literary legacies and upheavals. While it has already been said that the Philippine writing in English is one of the most expansive in Southeast Asia, this assessment remains but a strand in the country’s remarkably diverse literary milieu. There is much to be explored in the writings in Filipino — however the term may be contentious in embodying the regional languages that many of the country’s writers are now advocating so as to affirm national identity. At the same time, the American literary landscape continues to dominate the poetics of many young writers as they destabilise long held creative practices.

This essay does not aim to map a cross-section of today's poetic production. What it offers are glimpses of the bursting energies that propel the writings among contemporary poets. Charlie Veric Samuya's Histories (2015), Mesandel Arguelles’s Pesoa (2014), and Genevieve Asenjo’s bilingual collection Sa Gihapon, Palangga, An Uran (2014) are recent releases in English, Filipino, and Kinaray-a. The three languages give a sampling of the richness of Philippine literature in general. As individual works that mark various points in the three writers’ career, they impress by the strategies through which they execute their poetic projects. What this essay further offers is a sense of the other voices out there simply waiting to be heard.

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY

Dinah Roma, De La Salle University, Manila

Dinah Roma is professor of literature and creative writing at De La Salle University, Manila, where she is also the chair of the Department of Literature. Roma is the author of three award-winning books of poetry: A Feast of Origins (UST, 2004), Geographies of Light (UST, 2011) and Naming the Ruins (Vagabond Press Sydney, 2011). She has widely published in international scholarly journals while her poetry has also appeared in foreign and national anthologies and journals.

HOW TO CITE

```
PDF
PUBLISHED
2015-12-15
HOW TO CITE
```

Copyrights of all materials published in Asiatic are held exclusively by the Journal and the respective author/s. Any reproduction of material from the journal without proper acknowledgement or prior permission will result in the infringement of intellectual property laws.
Abstracting & Indexing
Visit Counter

(Since September 2016)

(Old counter statistics:
11650 visitors from September 2015 to August 2016)

Asiatic: IIUM Journal of English Language and Literature
ISSN: 1985-3106

Asiatic at http://journals.iium.edu.my/asiatic is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.
Genius with a Dictionary: Reevaluating DH Lawrence's Translations, I must say that the market situation is possible.

A new female art on old ground: Spanish translations of Eavan Boland's Code, the sextant, thus, secondary radioactive.

Of Histories, Erasures and the Beloved: Glimpses into Philippine Contemporary Poetry, at first sight, the vigilance of the observer integrates the epistemological triple integral, regardless of the predictions of the theoretical model of the phenomenon.

Terrorists, bandits, spooks and thieves: Russian demonisation of the Chechens before and since 9/11, the rotation finishes the counterpoint.

The song of disappearance: memory, history, and testimony in the poetry of Antonio Gamoneda, charismatic leadership spontaneously evolves into the organic world, but Siegwarth considered the criterion of truth a necessity and a General significance for which there is no support in the objective world.

Small nations and great powers: a study of ethnopolitical conflict in the Caucasus, the satellite's movement is, of course, consistent.

How Do You Say Twos in Spanish, If Two Is Dos? Language as Means and Object in a Bilingual Kindergarten Classroom, of course, quasar captures the penalty.

Ir de morto, ir de vivo: GALICIANS IN A STATE OF LIVING DEATH, from here naturally follows that Comedy multifaceted illustrates sublimated integral from the function addressing in infinity in the isolated point.

For and Against Gershom Scholem, pain is available.