
The Meaning of "Wicca": A Study in Etymology, History, and Pagan Politics.

Author(s): White, Ethan Doyle

Abstract:
This essay provides the first comprehensive examination of how the term "Wicca" - used in reference to the modern religion of Pagan Witchcraft - has been utilized throughout the faith's history. Examining its antecedents, including the Old English "wicca" and the early Cardnerian "Wica", the author looks at the many definitions that the term has seen over the last seventy years to conclusions that provide a new interpretation of not only how the term has been used in the Pagan community in the present, but also how it can most effectively be used in the future.
