[−] Abstract and Keywords

This article considers the outline, form, and content of the Apocalypse of Jesus Christ, is a collection of visions, some of which begin a new visionary sequence (e.g., chs. 2–3). In Revelation, there is a discernible thread running throughout, acknowledged as creator and honoured as such. This thread is rebellion. The inexorable overcoming of that rebellion through the seal by the Lamb paves the way for the establishment of heaven on earth when the God hidden from all except the
