Abstract : This book provides a pictorial celebration of one hundred years of the Olympic Games, chronicling the tragedies, the triumphs and celebrations of the Olympic Games. It also provides a profile of the cultural Olympiad, from the nationalistic fervor of the opening and closing ceremonies, to the posters, medals, music and rituals that make up each Olympic Games. A concluding chapter also studies the impact of science on Olympic achievements such as the evolution of specialised equipment from bicycles to bobsleighs, and training techniques. A table listing all gold-medal winners is included.

both Summer and Winter events, along with their winning scores and times at the end of the book.
