Abstract

Beginning in 1964 my husband and I were involved in the dev weaving cooperative in Southwestern Turkey. We lived with th from 1964 to 1966, as part of the first Peace Corps rural community program in Turkey. Between 1966 and 1969 we continued to work in its efforts to develop markets and quality control standards. I was a Peace Corps staff member. Since leaving Turkey in 1969, I have visited Çömlekçi recently in 1992 and 1994.

The success of the Çömlekçi cooperative in turn generated carpet production throughout the province of Muğla. This paper describes my role in the design and construction of Çömlekçi carpets between 1964
