Abstract

Islam is perhaps the most misunderstood religion in the world today and indeed throughout history. It is misunderstood by non-Muslims, but it is also misunderstood by Muslims themselves. How else can two sects with beliefs and teachings which are so different and contradictory? Some must be wrong, the result is a misunderstanding of Islam. One of the missions of the Prophet of Islam was to bring peace and unity to the Jahiliah or the ignorant Arabs of the pre-Islamic days. This he succeeded in doing as narrated in several messages of Allah were brought by one Prophet and recorded in one holy Quran. There is no other Quranic editions which carry different texts. The holy Quran is not in the form of Gospels by Muslim saints or universities, it is just the record of the messages of Allah in the Arabic of the period. Translations of the Quran may be done, but they are not accepted as the holy Quran. Only that in the original Arabic is accepted. So there can be no differences or versions which can result in differences in the messages or teachings of Islam. Yet, clearly there are differences, so serious that Muslims are divided sometimes into warring sects. Why is this so?
