Coldwater fisheries of India.

Author(s) : Jhingran, V. G. ; Sehgal, K. L.

Book : Coldwater fisheries of India. 1978 pp.xix + 239 pp. ref.8 pp. of

Abstract : After an account of the history of the coldwater fisheries of India and adjacent countries, brief descriptions and a key are given for 34 native and introduced coldwater species. The capture fisheries (commercial and recreational) and aquaculture of upland waters are described, with a fairly detailed account of the operation of enterprises for rearing trout (Salmo spp.) and carp (Cyprinus spp.). A section considers the future of the Indian cold water fisheries. There is a glossary of some 90 terms and author and subject indexes are provided.
