The beautiful game: a journey through Latin American football.

Author(s): Taylor, C.

Abstract: Structured around first-hand accounts of matches during the build-up to the 1998 Football World Cup in France, and interviews with famous footballers such as Rattín and Zico, the book provides an account of how soccer is integrated into Latin American culture, politics and society. A comprehensive overview is presented of the Latin American football experience, from the giants of Brazil and Arge
