Outback mining communities: A cautionary tale

Meanjin

Volume 71 Issue 2 (Winter 2012)

Terzis, Gillian

Abstract: Most of us will be familiar with the tell-tale signs of a stagnant economy: jobs being shed across industries, people starting to reduce debt, vacancies dotting shopping strips. Frugality holds few charms. At the time of writing, my home state of Victoria - along with New South Wales, South Australia and Tasmania - is said to be on the brink of recession.
