Writing Arab-American Identity Post

9/11

Carol Fadda-Conrey

Abstract

In their introduction to the first anthology of Arab-American short fiction, Dinarzad's Children: An Anthology of Contemporary Arab American Fiction, editors Pauline Kaldas and Khaled Mattawa (2004) comment on the inextricable link between the global political repercussions triggered by the events of 9/11 and the need to assert Arab-American literature on the US literary map.
