You don't have to be crazy to be a writer

(it does help, though.)

Volume 29 Issue 1 (Mar 2015)

Macinnis, Peter

Abstract: This story began in a talk I gave at Birrong Girls High, when I used a shot of myself near a lava flow on Kilauea on the Big Island of Hawaii. You could see from the photo that I was sweating profusely, but one of the girls asked about the heat, and I mentioned that it was sufficient to frizzle the hairs on my legs.
